50 YEARS OF COMBINED EXPERIENCE

PHILIP SCARBOROUGH

Director/Editor Philip Scarborough began his love affair with the cinematic language at eleven years old and he hasn't slowed down since.

After finishing film school in the mid 90's he began working in commercial and documentary film producing commercials and videos for clients.

Philip has also written and directed over a dozen award-winning short films. Philip considers himself a life-long student of global cinema as he is always learning and always studying new uses of cinematic technique.

TOM BECK

Since 2001, Producer and award winning Photographer, Tom Beck has produced dozens of TV commercials, digital content, videos, and stills for over 20 years.

An admirer of Ingmar Bergman, Akira Kurosawa, and Martin Scorsese, Tom fuses strong storytelling instincts with compositional elegance.
